Equestrian Sports can be hazardous! I read and understand the posted sign stating: UNDER THE NEW JERSEY LAW, AN EQUESTRIAN AREA OPERATOR IS NOT LIABLE FOR AN INJURY TO OR DEATH OF A PARTICIPANT IN EQUINE ANIMAL ACTIVITIES RESULTING FROM THE INHERENT RISKS OF EQUINE ANIMAL ACTIVITIES.

Pursuant to P.L. 1997 c. 287 (c.5:15-1 ET SEQ.) I am aware of the inherent risks of equine animal activities created by equine animals, weather conditions, conditions of trails, riding rings, cross-country courses, equestrians and all other inherent conditions. If I want the benefits of medical or liability or any other type of insurance, I am agreeing to purchase it myself.

In this release Country Haven will refer to any and all parties including but not limited to Don and Earlen Haven, agents, volunteers, employees, other land owners, etc.

I/we are releasing Country Haven from any liability from any and all incidents and accidents while attending or hosting any and all activities associated with Country Haven, including but not limited to pleasure riding, lessons, clinics, shows or any equine events, cross country schooling or other schooling, sales, spectating, handling, stabling, boarding, trailering, and storing of tack & equipment.

I acknowledge and accept that Country Haven accepts no liability or obligation should injury or death occur while participating in any activity. The undersigned is agreeing to accept all responsibilities and risks and further releases Country Haven from any liability or responsibility for accident, damage, injury or illness not only to the undersigned but to any family members or spectators accompanying the undersigned or any other people involved. I further agree to indemnify Country Haven against any and all losses arising out of any claim, demand or suit including any legal fees or other costs occurred, by anyone else suing Country Haven as a result of the trainee or any minor's association with Country Haven.

The undersigned agrees to assume all responsibility and risk for their horse, themselves, and any form of damage to other people or property from the riding, handling or working around horses on Country Haven's property or any other grounds that may be used.

Each participant is assumed to know the range of their abilities and it shall be their duty to conduct themselves within the limits of such abilities to assure safety. The participant will examine the property, including but not limited to: riding ring, trails, and any jump courses. If schooling cross country, they will have their trainer/ground person with them at all times. They further agree to keep the parking area clean, close all gates, put back up all fence lines and leave jumps as they found them. They understand that they are responsible for anything that they break.

If the trainee is a minor, the parents must sign this agreement agreeing joint and severally and in the alternative that no suit shall be instituted by such parents joint or severally against Country Haven to recover damages or loss actually or allegedly resultant to the parents of said minor or to either of them by reason of any claim, demand or loss which may occur during, prior to or after the training program.

A participant shall submit a written report to Country Haven setting forth the details of any accident or incident, as soon as possible, but in no event longer than 180 days from the time of the accident or incident.

I have voluntarily signed this, releasing Country Haven from any liability or legal or medical obligations.
